Use these rewards to your advantage in the next battles. You can share your leaderboards and challenge your friends on social media for more interactive gameplay! Could you be the next top special operation? CustomizationThings weapons are better when they look better. Choose from a variety of weapons to master and practice. And customize them to your liking! Put custom skins for a more fabulous combat experience than ever before. Whether you choose to use a knife, a gun, or a machine gun, remember that you can always drive the force in style! Fun multiplayer mode does not end with finishing missions and polishing the weapon by yourself. Did you think you'd feel good on your own? Enjoy teaming up with friends and players from around the world and fighting the forces of evil together. Strategize with them and cope with their style of play. Praise your upgraded weapons with custom skins with confidence! It's always important to watch over them and see if you're missing something. Everyday is a chance for you to learn and become a better special operations agent. Remember that it is not bad to copy, it is a choice that you should make to improve yourself. Daily MissionsComplete the daily missions tasked to get you on the missions tab to progress. Missions vary from day to day and depend mainly on your level and experience. Complete daily missions first before others, as they can only be completed on that day. Missions would be killing an X number of people using a type of weapon and kind will give you rich rewards. Maximize the use of these rewards in Case. Critical Ops Tips and Tricks: Weapon of ChoiceThere are five types of weapons to choose from. And the key to winning in critical ops game is to find the right weapon depending on the style of play and strategy. Guns are good for both of us. Both. and short-range lenses, do not do much damage, but easy to use with quick back. Machine guns and assault rifles are best for mid-range targets. They have the highest rate of fire per second and can pull out enemies faster than any other weapons, provided you are not so close and not so far away. Rifles should be used to kill short-range targets. They are incredibly powerful and can kill most targets in one shot, provided you're somehow close to the target. Sniper rifles are best used for long-range lenses, but can be used at any range. If you have your targeting skills, you can kill anyone with their deadly bullets. Get a guaranteed kill with sniper rifles for every headshot! Map FamiliarizationAside from map awareness, map familiarization also plays an important role in winning Critical Ops online game. It might take you some time to familiarize all the maps, but get the hang of it and you'll be victorious most of the time. If you're inside, let's put them in the net.
